

DACA RENEWAL

ELIGIBILITY SCREENING FORM

To determine whether there are any red flags in your case or to request ILCM's assistance, please answer the questions on this confidential questionnaire. Whether or not you identify any red flags, we strongly recommend that you consult with ILCM or another experienced immigration attorney before filing any application with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). Please note that this questionnaire is only for people who have already received DACA and now want to renew DACA.*

1. When does your DACA expire? _____ (The expiration date on your employment authorization card is the same date that your DACA expires).

2. Is your expiration date more than 150 days (5 months) away?

☐ YES

If you answered "yes" it is too early to file your application. USCIS may reject applications that are filed earlier than 150 days before the expiration date. However, it may not be too early to consult with ILCM or another immigration attorney. ILCM will consider requests for assistance from people whose expiration date is less than 6 months away.

☐ NO

If you answered "no," it is important to file your application as soon as possible, ideally no later than 120 days before your expiration date.

3. Have you been arrested, charged or convicted for a misdemeanor or felony offense since your initial DACA was approved? This includes tickets, juvenile arrests, and even cases that were dismissed or expunged.

☐ YES

If you answered "yes" you must get your arrest or conviction records and consult with ILCM or another experienced immigration attorney before filing any DACA renewal application, to make sure you are still eligible.

☐ NO

If you answered "no," proceed to the next question.

4. Did you have any contact with police like arrests, convictions, tickets, or juvenile offenses that happened before you got DACA but that you did not disclose to immigration on your application? (Do not include minor traffic violations that did not involve alcohol)

☐ YES If you answered “yes” you must consult with an ILCM or another experienced immigration attorney before filing any DACA renewal application, to make sure you are still eligible.

☐ NO If you answered “no,” proceed to the next question.

5. Since your initial DACA was approved, have you had contact with ICE or been placed in removal proceedings?

☐ YES If you answered “yes” you should consult with ILCM or another experienced immigration attorney before filing any DACA renewal application.

☐ NO If you answered “no,” proceed to the next question

6. Since your initial DACA was approved, have you traveled outside of the United States?

☐ YES If you answered “yes” you should consult with ILCM or another experienced immigration attorney before filing any DACA renewal application.

☐ NO If you answered “no,” proceed to the next section.

Information about filing your DACA renewal or requesting assistance from ILCM

If you did not have any “yes” answers that indicate a red flag and would like to file to renew your DACA on your own, please see ILCM’s “DACA Renewal Frequently Asked Questions” on our website: <http://www.ilcm.org>. You can also find DACA renewal guidance and application forms from U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) on the USCIS website: <http://www.uscis.gov>.

If you had “yes” answers or would like ILCM’s assistance in filing to renew your DACA, please fill in your contact information on the next page, as well as information regarding your household income, so that we can evaluate whether you are financially eligible for ILCM’s services. ILCM is a non-profit law office that serves clients whose household income is below 187.5% of the federal poverty guidelines.

ILCM will try to serve as many clients as possible in their DACA renewals. However, our resources are limited and we cannot guarantee that we will be able to serve everyone who contacts us or submits this form. Thank you for your understanding.
