

U visa resources on the Web, from Immigration Advocates Network:

The podcast, "U Visas and Raids", by Gail Pendleton and Sonia Parras-Konrad, Co-Directors of ASISTA, the Immigration Technical Assistance Project, discusses screening for U visas following an ICE raid, key strategies for assisting immigrants who may be eligible for U visas, materials and protocols that are useful in preparing a U visa application, and working with non-traditional law enforcement for the U visa law enforcement certification at <http://www.immigrationadvocates.org/link.cfm?11667> (login required)

The podcast, "Hot Topics in U Visas", by Gail Pendleton and Sonia Parras-Konrad, discusses U visas, including basic eligibility, duration, inadmissibility, waivers, derivative beneficiaries, evidentiary issues, and practice tips on handling complicated U visa issues at <http://www.immigrationadvocates.org/link.cfm?10054> (login required)

The "News" section contains:

-An article about the 20 Postville workers who received U visas at <http://www.immigrationadvocates.org/link.cfm?12592>

The "Alerts" section contains:

-The U and T visa adjustment regulations at <http://www.immigrationadvocates.org/link.cfm?12593> (login required)
-The CIS Ombudsman report on U visas at <http://www.immigrationadvocates.org/link.cfm?12594> (login required)

Other U Visa Materials:

American Immigration Law Foundation

The American Immigration Law Foundation website contains information on a complaint challenging DHS's failure to adjudicate U visas at http://www.aifl.org/lac/litclearinghouse/litclr_newsletter_032807.pdf

ASISTA

ASISTA offers free U visa materials at <http://www.asistaonline.org/u.visa.asp>

Immigrant Legal Resource Center

The Immigrant Legal Resource Center website provides information about U visas at http://www.ilrc.org/immigration_law/vawa_and_u-visas.php

Legal Momentum

The Legal Momentum website includes documents on U visas at <http://www.legalmomentum.org/our-work/immigrant-women-program/u-visa.html>